1. TITLE

The Union shall be called "The Western District Cricket Union" (hereinafter referred to as "the Union").

2. OBJECTS

The objects of the Union will be to promote the furtherance and improvement of the game of cricket within the West District of Scotland (hereinafter referred to as "the West District") being such area as is designated from time to time by Cricket Scotland Limited (hereinafter referred to as "CS") and, in pursuance of that objective as the Executive Committee may from time to time determine:-

To institute and run a league championship or championships in the West District;

To institute and run such other cricket competition or competitions in the West District;

To organise and run all forms of junior cricket and junior competitions in the West District;

To organise representative cricket teams and their match arrangements at all age levels in the West District;

To provide cricket coaching facilities and to organise coaching and the education of coaches in the West District;

To provide training facilities for, and to assist with the organisation of, cricket administrators and officials in the West District;

To own, lease, hire, rent, acquire, purchase, sell and dispose of such property of all and every type (excluding heritable property);

To affiliate other cricket organisations and to liaise with and affiliate to any other organisations having an interest in the promotion of the game of cricket;

To provide such assistance as appropriate to CS and Cricket Scotland Holdings Ltd ("CSHL");

To raise finance for the foregoing purposes in any manner or way including the charging of Membership subscriptions, levies, obtaining funds by sponsorship whether from Members or outside organisations or persons, obtaining grant aid, and, subject as aftermentioned, borrowing such funds; and

To ensure the pursuance of all the foregoing objectives under the auspices of CS.

3. MEMBERSHIP

3.1 Classes of Membership

Membership of the Union shall be divided into two classes as follows:-

- (a) Full Membership; and
- (b) Affiliate Membership.

3.2 Eligibility for Membership

3.2.1 Any cricket club being a member of CS and being a Saturday club (as hereinafter defined) and playing its home fixtures in the West District shall be eligible for Full Membership of the Union.

3.2.2 Any cricket league or cricket organisation or other cricket body conducting its business under the auspices of CS and operating within the West District and any cricket club being a non-Saturday club (as hereinafter defined) shall be eligible for Affiliate Membership of the Union.

3.2.3 A Saturday club shall mean a cricket club which has at least one senior team that competes in a cricket competition or competitions whose fixtures are played predominantly on Saturdays.

3.2.4 A non-Saturday club shall mean a cricket club which plays its home fixtures in the West District but which has no senior teams that compete in any cricket competitions whose fixtures are played predominantly on Saturdays.

3.3. Admission to Membership

Any eligible club or organisation wishing to become a Member of the Union must first apply in writing to the Honorary Secretary of the Union at least thirty days prior to the date of any General Meeting and any such application must be accompanied by written evidence of the support of two existing Members of the Union. Any valid application for Membership of the Union will be considered at the appropriate General Meeting. Admission to Membership of the Union shall be by the votes of the Members and a majority of at least two thirds of the votes cast by the Members present and voting shall be required. No application for Membership of the Union may be refused on other than reasonable grounds, nor will there be any discrimination on grounds of race, occupation, sex, or religious, political or other opinion.

3.4 Resignation

Any Member wishing to withdraw from Membership of the Union must intimate the same in writing to the Honorary Secretary of the Union not later than thirty days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting, failing which such Member shall remain liable for payment of the appropriate Annual Subscription for the following year. Any Member withdrawing shall be held to have forfeited all rights to participate in the assets of the Union but shall be held responsible for its proportion of the liabilities of the Union as at the date of such withdrawal, unless otherwise determined by the Union in General Meeting.

3.5 Expulsion

A Member shall not be expelled from the Union except at the Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called for the purpose and then only by the votes of the Members, a majority of at least two thirds of the votes cast by the Members present and voting being required. Any Member being so expelled shall be held to have forfeited all rights to participate in the assets of the Union but shall be held responsible for its proportion of the liabilities of the Union as at the date of such expulsion, unless otherwise determined by the Union in General Meeting.

3.6 Voting Rights

Except as hereinafter prescribed, Members of the Union shall have the following voting rights at General Meetings of the Union:-

- (a) A Full Member who has established to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee that it (i) complies with the Union's requirements laid down from time to time in relation to the level and standard of facilities available to its members and the general public and the development of cricket at senior and junior age levels and (ii) provides the necessary level and standard of facilities to be eligible to compete in the top two divisions of the Saturday league shall be entitled to two votes and be considered a Class 1 member;
- (b) All other Full Members shall be entitled to one vote and be considered a Class 2 member; and
- (c) An Affiliate Member shall be entitled to one vote and be considered a Class 2 member.

4. FINANCE

4.1 Subscriptions

The three categories of Members outlined in Clause 3.6 will apply for subscription purposes. The amount of the subscription for each Class of Membership shall be fixed annually by the Executive Committee and approved by the Members at the Annual General Meeting. Subscriptions shall be payable in advance on or before the First day of January in each financial year. The first year's subscription of new Members shall be payable on admission and, until it be paid, new Members shall not be entitled to any of the benefits of Membership. Should the subscription of any Member remain in arrears for more than three months, the defaulting Member shall, if it remains unpaid after intimation from the Honorary Treasurer, be suspended from Membership of the Union and shall not be entitled to any of the privileges of Membership of the Union. All clubs that are Members of the Union shall be entitled to compete in league and cup competitions run by the Union but only subject to the provisions of Clause 8 of this Constitution and no Member shall be entitled to compete in any such competition unless and until it has paid the annual subscription.

4.2 Deficiency of Funds

Should there be at any time a deficiency of funds, the Members during any financial year in which such deficiency occurs shall be liable to such addition in the annual subscription as the Executive Committee may determine, provided always that such addition shall not exceed the amount then fixed as the annual subscription for that financial year.

4.3 Borrowing

The aftermentioned power of the Executive Committee to borrow monies or funds for the purposes of the Union and to authorise the granting of deeds or documents in relation to such borrowing shall be restricted to a maximum level of aggregate borrowings outstanding from time to time of Five thousand Pounds Sterling unless with the consent of the Members in General Meeting.

4.4 Accounts

The financial year shall end on the 30th September in each year. The Honorary Treasurer's accounts and balance sheet shall be reviewed annually by an independent qualified accountant appointed at the preceding Annual General Meeting and a copy of the annual balance sheet shall be sent to each Member of the Union with the notice calling the Annual General Meeting.

5. OFFICE BEARERS

The Office Bearers of the Union, who shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Union, shall consist of a Chairman of Committee (hereinafter referred to as "the Chairman"), a Vice Chairman of Committee (hereinafter referred to as "the Vice Chairman"), an Honorary Secretary and an Honorary Treasurer. Office Bearers shall be elected for a period of two years and, except as specified in this Clause 5, shall be eligible for re-election thereafter. Each of the Chairman and the Vice Chairman shall retire from office at the end of said two year period but shall both be eligible for immediate re-election to the same office for a further period of two years. On expiry of the second period of two years, the Chairman and the Vice Chairman shall each retire and shall not be eligible for immediate re-election to the same office.

No proxies shall be allowed at any General Meeting of the Junior Union. No person shall represent more than one Member nor have more than one vote.

10. Clause deleted.

11. Clause deleted.

12. DISCIPLINARY MATTERS AND DISPUTES

12.1 Disputes

In the event of any dispute arising between or among Members of the Union the matter shall be referred in the first instance to a decision of the appropriate sub-committee which has direct authority under this Constitution for the subject matter giving rise to the dispute. If the subject matter of the dispute does not fall within or under the direct authority of a particular sub-committee, the matter shall be referred in the first instance to a decision of the Executive Committee. For the purposes of this Clause 12 the expression "sub-committee" shall include the Junior Union Committee.

12.2 Disciplinary Matters

All Members of the Union are expected to maintain a high standard of behaviour and to adhere to the rules of the sub-committees created by this Constitution as well as all matters governed by Clause 15 of this Constitution. Any alleged breach of discipline arising under the WDCU/Cricket Scotland Code of Conduct or otherwise shall be referred in the first instance to the Disciplinary & Appeals Committee which has direct authority under this Constitution for the subject matter giving rise to the alleged breach of discipline. For avoidance of doubt, alleged breaches of league or other competition rules shall be referred in the first instance to the CMC as appropriate. If the alleged breach does not fall clearly within or under the direct authority of a particular sub-committee or relates to matters governed by Clause 15 of this Constitution, the matter shall be referred in the first instance to a decision of the Executive Committee.

12.3 Drug Abuse

Doping is strictly forbidden. The Union is subject to the rules governing doping and drug abuse laid down by CS from time to time. Any alleged breach of these rules committed by a member of a Member of the Union shall be treated as though it were an alleged breach of the disciplinary rules of the Union committed by said Member of the Union and shall, in terms of Clause 12.2 of this Constitution, be referred in the first instance to a decision of the appropriate sub-committee which has direct authority under this Constitution for the subject matter giving rise to the alleged breach of discipline, or if the alleged breach of discipline does not fall within or under the direct authority of a particular sub-committee the matter shall be referred in the first instance to a decision of the Executive Committee.

12.4 Appeals

Members shall have the right to appeal any decision of the Executive Committee or any sub-committee under this Clause 12 to the Disciplinary & Appeals Committee.

13. GENERAL MEETINGS

13.1 Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting of the Union shall be held at a venue to be decided by the Executive Committee no earlier than the third Friday in October and no later than the last Friday in December in each year. The purpose of the Annual General Meeting shall be to approve the financial accounts and receive reports of the activities of the Union and its Committees during the year, to appoint Office Bearers and committee members, to deal with alterations to this Constitution if duly notified and to consider any motion of which due notice has been given. Due notice requires details of any motion or proposal from a Member of the Union to be in the hands of the Honorary Secretary no later than 21 days prior to the date of the meeting to enable details to be distributed to Members with the meeting papers. Any such motion or proposal not meeting such due notice, including proposals made at the meeting, shall not be considered competent and cannot be voted upon.

13.2 Extraordinary General Meetings

Extraordinary General Meetings of the Union may be convened at the request of the Executive Committee. The purpose of Extraordinary General Meetings shall be to deal with all motions and proposals of which due notice has been given. Due notice requires details of any motion or proposal from a Member of the Union to be in the hands of the Honorary Secretary no later than 21 days prior to the date of the meeting to enable details to be distributed to Members with the meeting papers. Any such motion or proposal not meeting such due notice, including proposals made at the meeting, shall not be considered competent and cannot be voted upon.

13.3 Special General Meetings

13.3.1 A Special General Meeting may be convened at the request of the Executive Committee or on a written requisition from at least two Members of the Union. Any such requisition must state the purpose for which the meeting is to be called and the Special General Meeting must be held within six weeks of receipt by the Honorary Secretary of either a written requisition as aforesaid or intimation of a request of the Executive Committee. The Honorary Secretary will be obliged to give every Member of the Union at least twenty one days' written notice of a Special General Meeting and said written notice will specify the purpose for which the meeting is being called, and will state whether the request has been made by the Executive Committee or will specify the names of the requisitioning Members. No other business shall be transacted at said Special General Meeting.

13.3.2 All Special General Meetings shall be held at a venue, and at a time, to be decided by the Executive Committee.

13.4 Notice of General Meetings

The Honorary Secretary shall be obliged to give every Member of the Union at least fourteen days' written notice of the date of any General Meeting, other than a Special General Meeting.

13.5 Election of Office Bearers and Committee Members

Every nomination for the election of an Office Bearer and/or an Executive Committee member and/or a sub-committee member shall be submitted in writing either by the Executive Committee or by a proposing and a seconding Member of the Union to the Honorary Secretary at least thirty calendar days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting at which the appropriate election is to take place. Intimation of valid nominations shall be given by the Honorary Secretary to all Members of the Union at least fourteen days prior to the Annual General Meeting.

13.6 Representation and Voting at General Meetings

Each Full Member of the Union paying a Class 1 subscription shall be entitled to send two representatives to attend General Meetings. Every other Full Member of the Union and every Affiliate Member shall be entitled to send one representative to attend General Meetings. The Office Bearers and other members of the Executive Committee shall also be entitled to attend at General Meetings but shall not be entitled to vote unless attending as a representative of a Member as aforesaid. Unless otherwise specified in this Constitution, all matters considered at General Meetings shall be decided by a simple majority of votes cast by those present and voting. All General Meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman, whom failing the Vice Chairman, and notwithstanding the terms of this Clause of the Constitution, the chairman of the General Meeting shall have a casting vote in the event of equality. A quorum shall exist at any General Meeting which is attended by representatives of at least fifteen of the Members of the Union. No proxies shall be allowed at any General Meeting. No person shall represent more than one Member nor have more than one vote.

14. ALTERATIONS TO THE CONSTITUTION AND DISSOLUTION OF THE UNION

No alteration can be made to this Constitution nor can the Union be dissolved except at the Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting convened for the purpose. Any proposal to alter this Constitution or dissolve the Union must be made in writing either by the Executive Committee or by at least two Members of the Union. If the proposal to alter this Constitution or dissolve the Union is to be considered at the Annual General Meeting, written notice of said proposal must be submitted to the Honorary Secretary at least thirty days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting. The Honorary Secretary will be obliged to give every Member of the Union at least fourteen days' written notice of the proposal which notice will specify the nature of the proposal and will state whether the proposal has been made by the Executive Committee or shall specify the names of the proposing Members. If the proposal is to be considered at a meeting other than the Annual General Meeting, the Honorary Secretary must on receipt of a written proposal from at least two Members of the Union or from the Executive Committee, give at least twenty one days' written notice to every Member of the Union of the date of a Special General Meeting to consider the proposal and said notice will specify the nature of the proposal and will state whether the proposal has been made by the Executive Committee or will specify the names of the proposing Members. The Honorary Secretary shall be obliged to convene said Special General Meeting to be held no later than six weeks after he shall have received the written proposal from at least two Members of the Union or from the Executive Committee. No alteration shall be made to this Constitution nor shall the Union be dissolved unless approved by at least a two thirds majority of the votes cast by the Members present and voting at the General Meeting.

15. CONSTITUTION TO BE BINDING ON MEMBERS

All Members of the Union shall be bound by the terms of this Constitution of the Union and all rules prescribed thereunder by the Executive Committee.

16. DISSOLUTION

In the event of the dissolution of the Union all available assets after the discharge of all liabilities and debts shall be transferred to any other organisation or organisations having as its or their main object the promotion and furtherance of the game of cricket in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Executive Committee shall, in its sole discretion, consider to be fair and reasonable.
